Hi, my name is Sandy

Cat and dog friendly

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Look at this gorgeous sweet little fella. Sandy is a sensitive, playful little boy who likes nothing more than to snuggle next to you. He adores playing with other kittens and playful cats and is very active and a lot of fun. His favourite toys are the balls with a mouse hidden inside as he is very curious. He will always try to find you if you leave the room and loves the company of his humans. Sandy is very loved by his foster mum as he is a gentle soul. He loves nothing better than having a snooze on his foster mums bed. Sandy loves to have a chat and communicate through smooches and his little meows. Sandy is litter trained and isn't fussy with his food. When enquiring about Sandy could you please tell us a bit about yourself and family and the kind of home you can offer this sweet boy.
