

Hi, my name is Skipper (On Trial 6/5/14)

Looking for love

Medium Male Fox Terrier Dog

Skipper is a male, 4yo purebred Fox Terrier (smooth coat). He loves being with people and is good with children. He is a relaxed and happy dog and not hyperactive. He likes a morning walk and then will just keep you company throughout the day or enjoy the sunshine outside without being a pest. He will be in heaven if you pay attention to him and rub his belly or his ears. He loves the water! His favourite game is biting at the water from the hose. He enjoys relaxing with something to chew such as bones, pig's ear, or a stuffed Kong toy. He is past the puppy stage so doesn't chew anything else. He's not a barker, and will only bark when there is something noisy happening outside such as screaming kids or skateboards.

Skipper loves being inside with his people! He is fine outside when no one is home during the day but needs to be inside with his family when anyone is home. He's no trouble indoors. He will just lie on his bed in the same room with you. He is housetrained. He's a very good boy at night. He sleeps on a dog bed in a spare bedroom and you never hear a peep out of hi...
