

Hi, my name is Louie

Looking for love

Large Male Ridgeback Mix Dog

Louie came into Wally's care quite neglected and very underweight and he had obviously had no training. But after spending some time with his foster family, he is now thriving! He's put on a whopping 8 much needed kilos, but is not greedy when it comes to his food. He will sit and wait penitently until he's fed. He can now also sit and shake on command! Clever boy. Louie is great when you take him out and about as well, whether it be on or off leash.

There's no pulling, he never takes off and always comes when he is called. He is a lovely young boy who loves being close by his humans, so the more they're at home the better for Louie. He'd make a great addition to any family and would especially love another dog and kids to play with of an afternoon when they get home from school. Louie lives on the Central Coast of NSW with his foster family.
