

Hi, my name is Libby

Looking for love

Large Female Greyhound Dog

Libby is a playful little thing who loves to get cuddles when she can. She walks extremely well on a lead and is already house trained and waits at the door or whines quietly if she needs to go outside. She has a fabulous time playing chasey with balls and running around after the children. Libby is currently living in foster care with another female greyhound and is fitting in nicely. She is a beautiful girl with a lovely soft coat and is super affectionate and just an all round wonderful, friendly girl. She is happy to sleep inside or outside, as long as she is wrapped up warmly, and she wants to please. She is going to need a home without cats, caged birds or small animals, as she is a bit too interested in them. Libby is a sociable girl, but other dogs do initially make her nervous and she may quietly growl at them to leave her alone. This is only temporary until Libby feels a bit happier with the situation, and she has got on beautifully with all the dogs she has lived with in foster care. Libby is three years old and raced under the name Lightning Bug. She's goi...
