

Hi, my name is Acca

Looking for love

Medium Male Affenpinscher x Kelpie Mix Dog

Acca is a beautifully mannered Kelpie x who just loves to be around people or other dogs. He was good with my cat but he plays a little rough with them as he still tends to have puppy tendencies and could benefit some further training. He is a very energetic boy who has shown herding tendencies. He likes a squeaky toy doesn't matter what it is and would love to run after it. He absolutely loves being in the backyard. He would best be suited to older children as he would unintentionally knock younger ones over as he gets excited. He has been housed with dogs the size of a Chihuahua to a wolfhound and he has been excellent with all of them. He would be best suited to a very energetic family that understands the needs for such an energetic dog and knows what they are like and are willing to spend the time stimulating his mind. If you think you could be my new mummy or daddy please don't forget to fill out a form and my foster mummy will get back to you.
