

Hi, my name is Miska

Looking for love

Medium Female Staffy Mix Dog

Misha is a very lively & very intelligent dog, she loves nothing more than to chase a ball & to bring it back to you for hours on end. She is a typical Staffy X & loves people & being with them, but she does tend to jump up when she is excited so probably is not ideal in a home with small children as she may knock them over. She needs a new family that can give her plenty of time & attention with preferable a large yard that she can run in, or a park close by that she will get taken to everyday. Misha has never been around other pets, but should probably not be around cats.
