

Hi, my name is Bunny

Looking for love

Medium Male Labrador Dog

Don't let Bunny's looks deceive you! He may be carrying extra kilos but this big marshmallow can move! Bunny is pretty much the ultimate package as a family dog; loyal, loving and kind. Although he obviously loves his food, he also loves a walk and a play. Currently fostered with an older lab, 2 mini poodles and a lab x puppy, Bunny is friendly to all. He has just been introduced to cats and gets a little over-excited but it's nothing a little training wouldn't fix. Bunny knows his commands and he especially likes to shake hands. Best of all, the puppy years are over but not the enthusiasm for life. He is fully toilet trained. Bunny needs someone who can strictly monitor his diet and give him the gentle, regular exercise he needs to shed his extra weight. If you are the person who can help Bunny truly shine, please don't hesitate to call Marie on 0407 371 538 (preferred contact method).

Bunny requires a strict diet for weight loss.
