

Hi, my name is Zarlie

Looking for love

Medium Female Labrador Dog

Zarlie is a purebred labrador fur baby who is just the sweetest lady. She grew up in a family house with children and absolutely loves her people! Perfect family dog. She is loveable, affectionate and just a gentle soul. She is obedient knowing how to sit, come when called, be calm when asked (like when wanting to put a lead on her) and is completely toilet trained! She can be a little wary of other dogs as one of her pups was attacked by another dog once upon a time and she never fully recovered, so a meet and greet with another pooch would be necessary to make sure it's a good match. Otherwise she is quite happy to be an only dog. Zarlie is a low maintenance girl who is happy to go for a walk or chase the tennis ball for her exercise. When she's done with that, true to lab form, she just loves to lounge around and get cuddles. If you're looking for an easy going dog to add to your family for some company, then Zarlie is your girl. Wally's like all of our rescues to be adopted into families that will continue their socialisation and allow their dogs inside of the home ...
