

Hi, my name is Dottie Adoption Fee $100.00

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Dottie is a sweet cat, Dottie is very friendly and loving, follows you from room to room and happily wait for you to do what you are doing. Her foster carer says Dottie is an awesome cat, very affectionate. Dottie came to rescue as a very young kitten who gave birth to kittens in the pound, clearly she didnt get to enjoy her young kitten days and is making up for it now. She is very playful and often acts like a meerkat on her back legs playing. Dottie has always been an indoor cat since she came into rescue and in her first foster home she was living with two small dogs and young children. Currently in foster with another cat and young children. Cheeky girl will even beg for her food. Dottie is Litter trained, desexed, vaccinated , wormed, microchipped and had 1st vaccination. Dottie can get a little too excited sometimes, when she has had too much play time, little character tends to play bite when this happeds, she is fine just needs to be left time to calm herself down. She would be great in a home with older children that can see when she has had to much play. Dottie has been ...
