Small Female Miniature Fox Terrier Dog

Molly is a sweet 7yr old mini Fox Terrier. She is such a little smoocher. My goodness she just melts in your arms and would stay there forever. She gets on with other dogs and has a lovely friendly nature. She is an older girl but she will from time to time still get in there and have a play with the others. Molly is a inside dog and is totally toilet trained. She will sleep in her doggy bed but would much rather snuggle up to you in bed:) I just cant say enough about this gentle gorgeous natured little dog. She just wants your love and attention. She would really make someone a very cuddly little companion Her only flaw is that she does like to bark. Not all the time but she does bark. However her sweet, gentle and loving personality makes up for it:)) If you can provide this smoochy little princess a loving and secure home for the rest of her life, please contact Lucyann via email at blackorchid7@hotmail.com.au Molly 's adoption fee is $300 and she is desexed, vaccinated, treated for fleas and worms, microchipped, and lifetime registered.
