

Hi, my name is Mikey

Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

A little purr-bunny from the moment you touch him, Mikey is such a mummy's boy who loves his smooches and suckling soft pillows and dressing gowns :-). He has a kind heart and barely left my side when I spent a week with the flu, which was really special :-). He has a shelf under the computer table where he curls up next to my feet while I'm on the computer and often first tiptoes up behind me and taps me gentlemanly on the shoulder to ask 'please can you spare a moment for a pat?' which is just so very cute :-). He is comfortable being around our kelpie and corgi dogs and he loves the company of his Barnville kitty buddies - he's a big brother to them all. He also has a sidekick - a young, timid ginger tabby (Archie) who follows him around like a shadow and will sit right up against Mikey with his tail curled up and over his back :-). Mikey and his tiny siblings came to us dumped in a box outside a pet supplies store when they were around 6 weeks old. He is the last of his litter to be rehomed now and would suit a very quiet home.
