

Hi, my name is Hudson

Looking for love

Large Male Ridgeback Mix Dog

Hey, my name is Hudson and I'm hoping to find a loving family to adopt me, one that will accept me as part of the family and understand that although I'm small now, I will grow up to be a fairly big boy. I'm in foster care with a really nice family along with my sister, Kira (also on Pet Rescue) and their resident doggie, Indie. We spend our days playing both inside and outside, chasing each other around the backyard, playing tug-o-war and of course cuddling with our foster mum and little people (kids). Being only little pups, we do need our naps during the day and I love to cuddle up to my 2 furry sisters in our crate when we need a snooze or find a nice sunny spot to just chill. I'm trying really hard with my toilet training and I try my hardest to get outside in time. Hopefully by the time I go to my new home, I will have that mastered though. My foster mum says I'm the outgoing one of the two, so I think that means I'm her favourite! Well I like to think that anyway...I'm really really hoping that I find a home with another doggie friend that I can play with and just ke...
