Large Male Staffy Mix Dog

Kahlo – A floppy, cuddly, uncoordinated ball of love. Kahlo is an approximately 9 month old Staffy pup. He is a giant big teddy bear who loves to play. He still has some growing to do but is a gentle, loving boy. He gets along well with other dogs and also cats. The markings on his face are like they've been painted on; he is really quite unique looking and often gets stopped on the street. He has proven to be a bit of a lady's man so far. Kahlo likes to hoard toys and hide them away. He also loves to play and is generally quite an agreeable dude. He also has a slight shoe fetish so if you can't find your shoes they are usually hoarded behind the lounge, no bite marks but safely tucked away where he can look after them. He loves to be with people and follows you into whatever room you are in. At other times he can be quite independent and will play by himself. He goes to bed well. He will sleep outside, but he prefers to sleep on a dog bed next to you, or, if you're very kind, cuddled up close in your arms with his head on your pillow. Kahlo LOVES a cuddle. \ He wi...
