

Hi, my name is Queenie

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Looking for her forever home Queenie is an easy going cat. She has adapted well to being in foster care but is now looking for her forever home. She is great with other cats and children as she previously had a litter of her own kittens and was in care with another cat and young children. Queenie is friendly and is not phased by much (except for thunder/lightning - much like her foster mum). She loves to play and to perch up high. She loves to eat and will gently meow and rub against you when its food time and look at you with her big eyes. She is desexed, micro-chipped, litter trained and now knows to use the scratching pole. She is currently being kept indoors but is always watching out the window. I think she would make a great indoor/outdoor cat and the perfect companion for the first time or experienced cat lady/man or family! Please email for more information and to organise a visit so we can help Queenie find her forever home.
