

Hi, my name is Rosie

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Rosie is that rare female ginger kitten waiting for her family and is available now! She is one of five siblings that we fostered and is the last one looking for her home. She is a sweet, friendly and feisty kitten who needs a fair bit of company- when I'm home alone, she follows me around the house and hides under my skirt, standing on my feet so I know not to step on her. If carried, she frequently climbs onto shoulders and heads and even sits there! When she's not with her humans, Rosie loves to play and roughhouse with her best friend Chino. Chino is about 6 weeks older than Rosie but they've become fast friends and she chases him around and holds her own when they play fight even though she's half his size! Rosie has been raised around young kids (4 years +) who have handled her often and she will make a great addition to a family. She would do best in a home with children and other pets. She probably won't do well alone in a home where the family is out most of the day. She is also available as a pair with Chino with whom she's bonded really well. Located i...
