

Hi, my name is Malcolm

Looking for love

Medium Male Shar Pei Mix Dog

Malcolm is the most affectionate Shar Pei I have ever come across. He absolutely adores humans and dogs of all sizes. Malcolm is fully toilet trained and lives and inside/outside life at home but definitely prefers being inside when his humans are home. Due to his past life & being in a pound, Malcolm does get a bit anxious if he is put outside alone, though telling him to 'stop' does the trick. For this reason & for his love of dogs, I would like to see Malcolm rehomed into a home with another dog. Malcolm shows no signs of dominance and my 5kg mini cavoodle puts him in his place regularly. He has learnt to play so gently with her. They are the best of friends. Malcolm has a male Siberian Husky friend who he gets along with very well. The first meeting, he was nervous but within a decent time, Malcolm became comfortable and very playful with him. Malcolm shows no signs of food aggression and won't eat the other dogs food if told not to. He eats pleasantly and is not a fussy eater. When Malcolm first came into care, he showed signs of being abused but within a couple of weeks, ...
