

Hi, my name is Campbell

Looking for love

Large Male Great Dane x Labrador Mix Dog

Meet Campbell, our #1 Ladies Man! He completely adores females and bonds with them almost instantly. He is a very loyal, lovable and affectionate young dog who is great with kids and other dogs. He is a very sweet and fun-loving dog who will make a wonderful companion. Campbell is longing to be part of a family and their day to day routine. He sleeps soundly through the night and loves to go for a walk each day (if not twice) or a romp at the doggie park. Campbell is house trained, is quiet in the yard and knows sit and stay. He loves his toys and snuggling on the lounge. He is a very welcomed visitor at doggie day care and integrates well with dogs of all sizes. Although he would love a playmate of a similar size so that he can romp around with them. He will do best in a home with another dog/s for play and companionship and where he will be allowed inside with his family (he loves to snuggle with his humans). Campbell will need a home with secure 5-6 foot fencing. Campbell has a gorgeous temperament and will make an amazing companion.
