

Hi, my name is Dougi

Looking for love

Small Male Chihuahua Dog

Dougi is a lovely mix of chihuahua with a touch of poodle. He would love a secure well fenced garden because he is an Olympic runner by nature. \ Recently he discovered the art of digging so if you are near a beach it will be heaven for him! He started off driving all of us crazy fighting and biting but recently our foster chihuahua has taken charge of Dougi and is teaching him how to obey the rules of the dog pack. Its amazing because she is smaller than he is plus she's fairly toothless! lol. Please contact me if you are prepared to take him on daily walks and will not leave him "home alone" for hours. He will need to go to puppy school. He loves sitting on laps and cuddling. Like a child he gets silly when over tired so we simply hold him stroke him and when he is almost asleep he goes into his crate, which I cover with dark blankets and there is peace, perfect peace. When you email me please add a little about your home, the people he will be with and your lifestyle because I really must find the right niche for this little guy. \
