

Hi, my name is Marge

Looking for love

Medium Female Kelpie Mix Dog

Marge came in as a stray and despite her lack of hearing and sketchy eye sight she has remained upbeat and happy. Marge has possible demodex or flea allergy on her back end, she needs a good nail clipping (I tried to do them alone but they were tough and she was stressed so I stopped.) she has teeth but not as many as other dogs and some are only half. It also looks as though she's had many a puppy over the course of her life and has a slight limp. Due to her hearing she doesn't hear herself so can get barky but once she gets attention or let out for an old dog wander she settles down. She is a really nice dog and despite her long list of age-related issues she's quite spunky and alert. We would prefer Marge goes to rescue only as we feel with her age and health we want to guarantee she will get the care she needs.

partially blind and partially deaf, slight limp, demodex/flea allergy on back end.
