

Hi, my name is Olivia

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

My name is Olivia and i had a bit of a tough start to life. I found my self at the pound young, scared and with 4 little kittens to look after. I was rescued and taken to a vet that what look after me and my babies until they were old enough to find homes. Not having a lot of contact with people before, i was just terrified & did not want to trust anyone. I was shy and would hide at the first sight of a person. Slowly and surely i stated to trust those around me and even let people pat me.. My babies found homes and i soon came to realise that these people were here to love & look after me. After several months of care i now consider myself a super smootchy, affectionate sweet little girl. If you need a lap cat- i am the one for you. I demand lots of attention by way of cuddles & treats. I prefer the quite life & would really suit a calm home to suit my personality. I can be little shy when you first meet me but once i get to know you i will love & trust you forever (and never get off your lap)
