

Hi, my name is Jerry

Lovable, friendly & goofy

Medium Male Kelpie Mix Dog

Jerry is an absolutely gorgeous, smoochy and affectionate young Kelpie cross who loves pats and cuddles! Jerry is a smart dog who has learned sit, drop, shake hands and beg. He is currently learning 'spin'. He is currently attending dog school every Sunday morning with his foster carer. He is completely house trained, can use a dog door or will wait at the back door when he needs to go. Jerry is crate trained and also enjoys sleeping on a dog bed. Jerry has an off-switch in the house and will chill out and snooze in his crate or on a dog bed when his humans are on the computer or watching tv. Jerry will only be rehomed to an experienced dog owner - preferably experienced with working dogs, or an owner who is prepared to work with him. Like many Kelpies, he will need ongoing intellectual and physical stimulation. He will also need a trainer who is prepared to continue his desensitisation training in relation to car travel as Jerry sometimes sings during car travel. Jerry would love make an excellent running buddy for someone who likes jogging/running - or even...
