

Hi, my name is Eddie (Located In Watsonia)

Looking for love

Small Male Australian Cattle Dog x Jack Russell Terrier Mix Dog

Eddie is a charming little man, as sweet in nature as he is adorable. Through no fault of his own, little Eddie found himself in a country NSW pound with very few options, so we brought him to Melbourne, took care of his vet work including his desexing and his allergies and he has thrived in the loving care of his foster family. Eddie is very people oriented and loves his humans. \ He would make a wonderful companion for someone who is home more often than not. Eddie has had little training thus far, and while he is coming along very well in foster care, he would certainly benefit from and enjoy ongoing obedience training. Like all young dogs, Eddie can be a little exciteable, so will need consistency and positive reinforcement to ensure he develops and maintains his best manners. If you would like to meet Eddie, please complete the Expression of Interest linked below.
