Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Willow When you Google 'smoochy cat' you'll see a photo of Willow. With this gorgeous girl you don't just get head bops from Willow you get full body bops and in multiples! So if you don't mind a kitty that demands lots of pats and belly rubs then Willow is your girl. Not quite a lap cat, but in time I'm sure she'll make herself at home on your lap, your bed and anywhere else she'll claim as hers. Willow would suit a home that can provide her with an indoor sanctuary and perhaps a secure outdoor enclosure. It would be best not to allow Willow to free-roam for her own safety. Whilst in foster, Willow has been exposed to two resident cat friendly Labradors and is good with them provided they don't spook her. If spooked or if her personal space is invaded she will put them in their place! So she may be fine with a calm cat friendly dog as a companion (although she does prefer humans). Willow would also be better suited to being the only cat in the home, as she wants all your attention to herself. Willow is litter box trained and is currently being fostered in Gree...
