

Hi, my name is Skyla

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Skyla is a lovely affectionate cat. She came to me as a rescue from a high kill pound in New South Wales and she was pregnant. Her babies have all been vet worked and rehomed so now it's mum's turn! She is very playful and loves pats- she will grab your hand with soft paws to get you to keep giving her neck and head scratches. She likes an appropriate amount of belly rubs ;) and when picked up will delicately touch your face with her paws and sniff your nose! She likes to play! She will chase toys, and pieces of paper, and toes under blankets. While playing she will grab your hand- she has never bitten me but does mouth your hand if you push your luck on the belly rub limit! She is appropriately chatty and loves to be picked up. She does like my dog and her tail quivers happily when he comes inside for a play session! When he gets a bit too forward she bops him on the nose... Which he thinks is playing so he goes right back for more. So if you have a cat friendly dog and are looking for a feline friend give me a call! Her only flaw is that she HATES other cats. If you hav...
