

Hi, my name is Koda

Looking for love

Large Female Cross breed x Greyhound Dog

Koda came to Horsham Paws at 4 and a half months of age. Due to a leg injury that occurred prior to her arrival at Horsham PAWS her back right leg was amputated 3 weeks ago while in our care. Koda has handled her big surgery well and her recovery is going well. She is now ready to start looking for a home to call her own. Koda is now 5 and a half months old. And such a sweet girl. She is a greyhound cross and is growing upwards at great speed! She is good with other dogs and tries her hardest to make friends with cats (but not all cats appreciate her friendliness). Koda loves to be cuddled and be by your side, she will follow you around just watching what your doing. Her toilet training still needs lots of work and this would be her greatest struggle. She travels well in a car and just wants to be by your side. Koda is a pure joy to have around. She will be a wonderful addition to a family that will be understanding of her needs on three legs and can support her throughout her life. Koda's adoption fee is $350- and helps to cover some of her veterinary work. She wi...
