

Hi, my name is Nikita Aka Nikki

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

ABOUT ME: Hello - my name is Nikita also dubbed Nikki, I'm a kitten looking for my forever home with my brother Cameron aka Cami. This place was a bit scary when I first arrived, but being here with my lovely parents has really helped me find our courage. My foster mommy says I'm a pretty lady. I'm very polite for a kitten and I have very lovely manners, if I do say so myself. Although I should admit, I can be a bit of an attention seeker - I can't help it, I love getting pats! I also really love playing and I can be very playful at times. But when I'm done chasing Cami around, I love nothing more than sitting watching the wind rustle through trees, and the birds outside the window. I've been in foster care for a few months now and I think I'm ready for my furever home. I'm not asking for a lot - just a safe place where I can get lots of nice food, lots of toys and get lots of pats and cuddles, without little people or those barky guys! I do like other cats, so a feline friend would be ok. It would be great if my brother Cami could come with me - we really would like to stay together...
