

Hi, my name is Kip On Trial

Looking for love

Medium Male Kelpie Dog

Kip was saved at one day old when his siblings were destroyed on a farm. He and his brother were hand raised and he was taken by a Jillaroo to start working. But the owner moved on and many dogs going through this often get shot or put into pounds, Kip is lucky and didn't face this. He showed some working instinct but is just as happy to be a mate to a reasonably active person. His brother Chubb is also here and both are very much happy to be with each other, they have not harmed a cat and have been around horses and other dogs. He is obedient but strong and will need firm but kind leadership. He doesn't jump a 4 ft fence but it is a possibility. He would like another dog for company. Kip does love water mostly from the hose and sprinkler. He will spend hours on a hot day playing under a sprinkler. Kip really needs to have adventures in his life, walks and rides on your ute or in the back seat for example. Kip and I just went for a walk. No one seems to want this boy nor his brother Chubb. Kip walks well on lead, we are just siting out the storm and chilling with a cat or three...
