

Hi, my name is Josh

Looking for love

Large Male Rhodesian Ridgeback Mix Dog

Josh is your typical big goofy guy always looking for a fun time with plenty of energy to spare. He is a great natured dog that can benefit from further training as his attention span is not too terrific but he is certainly getting there Josh was very good to vet and great to tablet. He is currently on two meals of puppy food a day Josh can be handled whilst eating or playing & likes to tiptoe in the shell pool. Josh needs a family with older children as he can still jump on you when excited. A family who has had bull/ridge back breed experience is preferable and a fur sister who is desexed is desirable as he loves to play and have someone to keep him occupied Its important that you have secure fencing and are either home part of the time or full time. You must be committed to further his training as well Feeding these dogs is very important. Josh came in skin and bone and is only now just retaining his weight. Its better for giant breeds to stay on a good quality dry food till they finish growing and two meals a day for him of this is best. His appetite ...
