Looking for love

Large Female Bull Arab Dog

Hi there, my name is Skye and I am a female Bull Arab mix only 8 months old. I am a very friendly, cuddly girl. I am looking for a home where I will be able to become part of the family and enjoy quality time with you watching TV and snuggling really close. As you can see by my pictures I am going to be a big girl so I will need someone who will be prepared to take the time to continue with my training to ensure I can be the best dog I can be. I love playing with toys and running around and having fun, so another furry friend might be good for me. I love playing with the two big dogs in my foster home. I think I would also love to have kids to play with, but as you can see with my size I would not be suited to younger children as I might accidentally knock them over when I get excited. You may recognise me from my TV appearance on the news where I was in a story about Dog Rescue Newcastle <http://www.nbnnews.com.au/2016/01/03/dog-refuge-desperate-for-foster-carers/> If you would like more information on me or perhaps meet me, my foster mum would be more than happy to t...
