

Hi, my name is Zelda I'm Just $150!

Looking for love

Medium Female Mastiff Mix Dog

Gorgeous Zelda was almost put to sleep in a regional pound, but has been scooped up into rescue and shows how grateful she is every day with her super cuddly nature. She loves to fall asleep in your lap (don't tell her she isn't a lap dog) and has been known to sleep in bed with the kids in her foster home. She is excellent with kids though as she is still a puppy, she has a tendency to mouth when excited, but plays well. Zelda is gentle and quiet (except the thud-thud of her wagging tail coming down the hallway!). She is toilet trained and enjoys being welcomed into the home with her family. Zelda yearns for companionship. She would love a forever home where there is another like-minded dog, who doesn't mind having a cuddle and play. She is still learning how to interact with new friends at the dog park and will follow them but not engage. As her confidence grows, this should change. Zelda loves the water with a capital L! Playing in or with water is her favourite pass time and catching water coming from the hose is a game that could last all Summer! She's lear...
