

Hi, my name is Jacci

Looking for love

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Jacci and Johan are the last two of a litter who came to us at the beginning of this year. They had a very tough start and we were not sure if they would survive. We think due to leaving their mother too soon they did not have a strong immune system! We have built it up with special supplements to help them and now they have grown into a lovely strong beautiful affectionate young cats ready to go to their forever homes! They have been desexed, immunised, micro-chipped, flead and wormed like all the animals here at Happy Paws Haven.
