

Hi, my name is “Daisy”, Ready To Blossom. Cat Tolerant. Bris/Gc

Looking for love

Large Female Greyhound Dog

Tall, strong Daisy is a special girl, whose past experiences have made her very fearful of strangers. When she arrived in foster care, she was scared of being touched, but she's learned to love a cuddle. She likes to lay her big head in her foster carer's lap - with her butt still sticking up in the air! Daisy's ideal home will have a yard for running around in, and time for a couple of walks each day. Daisy loves other greyhounds, and would benefit from a similarly-sized canine companion. She needs a home without children, to give her the space to build her confidence. Once Daisy feels at home, she has the qualities of a wonderful pet – playing with squeaky toys, walking beautifully on the lead, making her foster carer smile with her goofball antics, and lapping up kindness and affection. This remarkable girl has the spunk and character to rise above her past troubles, and we hope to find her a home where she can blossom into the best dog she can be.
