

Hi, my name is Trixie

Looking for love

Small Female Terrier Mix Dog

At 11 years, three months you might think I'm a bit old, So I wrote this poem to break the mould. I can hang with the youngsters, I'm totally cool, I'm not one of those old folks who constantly drool. I'm keeping it tight and always improving, Especially since I hope soon to be moving. I'm looking for love, the forever kind, I'm hoping this is what you have in mind.

We can go out together for a nice walk, I'll happily listen to you while you talk. Just so you know, I'll go with you wherever. I'm ready to commit, we can be friends forever. I'm happy to share you with both dogs and cats, I love other animals! (But I'd try and eat rats.) And if you can help me watch what I'm eating And not indulge in too much treating, Soon I'll have a waist and my figure will improve! Together we can get up, get out and move... So to tell you the truth, with no word of a lie, I want this more than a whole apple pie. I'm really no trouble, I know I'll fit in, Adopt me, let me show you, it's totally win-win. Can I come live with you, make my home your place? ...
