

Hi, my name is Joey

Looking for love

Male Domestic Medium Hair Cat

Joey is a male 9 week old champagne and white domestic medium hair. He has been vaccinated, micro-chipped, wormed and flea'ed and the adoption price includes desexing when he's a bit older. Joey was brought to the Small Animal Specialist Hospital in North Ryde where I work. Little Paws Orphan Rescue took Joey into foster care. Joey is a very sweet and affectionate little man who despite being prime kitten age, is very gentle. He spent his first Christmas surrounded by children and took it all in his stride. He was even given a ride around in the back of the tricycle! He has been raised with small dogs and really enjoys their company. Joey doesn't like to sleep alone. He'll curl up and sleep with the dogs, grab a spot on a vacant lap or jump into bed with us. Joey is very social so he is best suited to a home with people that spend a good portion of time at home or a family with a feline friendly canine companion for him. Joey has become good buddies with Stark who is a stunning 10 month old domestic long hair so he could potentially be adopted with his buddy.
