

Hi, my name is Rhianna

Looking for love

Large Female Dogue De Bordeaux Dog

Rhianna is an absolutely delightful young lady. She's a small girl with just the right amount of energy; she loves to play, especially with squeaky toys and go for walks. But, also enjoys sitting quietly and getting a good scratch. Rhianna has beautiful manners, is house trained and doesn't climb on the furniture. She is affectionate, loves to be near you and sit and watch, or quietly follow you around the house. She interacts well with people and other dogs. She doesn't jump, sits on command, travels well in the car and walks well on lead. However, Rhianna does get very excited around meal times. She will sit and is learning to wait - she is learning quickly as she is young and a total sweetheart, who is so willing to please - But, she will require reinforcement with waiting and would benefit from some more training to learn some more basic commands. Rhianna needs a home where she is allowed inside, with humans who have time to spend with her and walk her daily. She has been exposed to children as young as 8, with no problems. But, supervision is required. She has e...
