

Hi, my name is Bam Bam

Looking for love

Medium Male Bull Terrier Dog

Bam Bam is very sweet and gentle to his humans and will happily climb onto your lap for a cuddle! In the short time he has been with his foster carers they have taught him a few more commands such as 'stay', 'gentle' (for food) 'walkies', 'wait' for crossing the road and he already has 'sit' mastered. He is not very food orientated and responds more to praise than treats (as food was available to him 24/7 in his previous home) He is slowly learning that you eat at mealtimes and then it is taken away from you, so treats are becoming more valuable to him over time. He walks very well on a lead, only occasionally becoming a little over excited and pulling, but this is quickly solved by stopping when he pulls so he learns it doesn't get him very far! He travels well in the car but loves to be included in the whole process so he wears his car harness. In Bam Bam's previous home, he lived with small children and was a great nanny dog so he would really enjoy some little humans to Hang out with, as long as they have manners of course. Bam Bam will need to be an only dog as has
