Small Male Silky Terrier Mix Dog

Introducing Freddie - a pint-sized, shy 2 year old Silky Terrier x. Freddie is a little fellow who is an absolute delight once he gets to know you. When he feels safe with you his friendly, playful personality comes out and he shows you how much of an endearing companion he is. He is so easy going with people he loves and he is a treasure to care for. Freddie is in foster care with 2 other quiet, gentle dogs - one big and one small and he gets on well with both. He enjoys canine companionship, however he also keeps himself easily entertained playing with soft toys so he's not an in-your-face type of player. He has only recently been introduced to big dogs and he's realized that big dogs can be very friendly so he follows his big foster brother Ludo (a senior boxer x staffy) everywhere! He is best matched with an adult dog who is out of puppy stage - he is so tiny that a playful pup could hurt him in play. Freddie visits the dog park twice a week as part of his socialisation and he's ok when most of the dogs come over for a gentle sniff (even the huge ones) - he isn't conf...
