

Hi, my name is Ludo

Looking for love

Medium Male Wolfhound Mix Dog

You want to cuddle me don't you?!?! I know I am cute!! Ludo is a 12 week old wolfhound x who is super affectionate, love to play with his 4 legged foster brothers and running around the house squeaking his toy alligator!! Whilst he thinks he is a lap dog now once he grows up that may be a bit more difficult, mum was a wolfhound and dad was either a kelpie or a wolfhound so we are thinking he will be a medium to large dog Ludo would suit someone who is home a little more often then not or already has another dog for him to play with as doesn't really like being alone for too long! He is a little scared of the cat and has been temp tested with a 1 year old child and is not really mouthy or jumpy. He is pretty smart for a puppy and will really benefit from puppy school and ongoing training. He currently sleeps in a create inside at night time. Ludo is located in Newport If you are interested in meeting Ludo, please complete an adoption form at www.startingoverdogrescue.org.au
