

Hi, my name is Peter Puss

Loves Cats

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Peter (aka #peterfosterpuss) came to us from unknown pastures as a very frightened little man in August 2015. In 1+ year he's been in foster care he's come along in leaps and strides. He's discovered his love of helping others and enjoyed being a companion cat for many of our scared and timid cats and dogs and has also discovered his inner child and loves playing cat chasey. GLBTIQA friendly he identifies as politically and ethically left of centre and is more of an introvert than extrovert and dreams of opening a cat rehab facility for scared cats. When he's not playing with kittens or doing rehab with one of the residents, he's enjoying some alone time on the dog bed or in the garden. Not much of a lap cat or one for pats he does enjoy rubbing himself up against your legs at dinner time and will very occasionally allow your hand to gently tickle his chin. So if you are looking for a lovely chap to keep you company or a companion animal for your cat or dog Peter is the one for you. Pete is a slow burner looking for someone who's not in a rush to allow his personality to co...
