

Hi, my name is Butch And Teddy

Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Butch If you're looking for the coolest cat ever then this big guy is for you. Butch was rescued off the streets in western Sydney. He has been in care for over a year now and we think it's time for him to find a home to call his own. Butch is so laid back, he loves humans and adores his best mate Teddy Cat. He comes out on daily supervised walks of the property, never tries to run away and is just happy to hang out with the humans. He has all the features of a real male cat, big head, body and paws. He really is magnificent looking boy. Teddy Teddy has also been in care for well over a year. He was rescued from the streets of Sydney west. At first glance teddy looks like he has had a hard life but by gosh he has some serious love to give. Teddy is laid back loves his cuddles and is not fazed by anything. Butch and Teddy have both tested positive to FIV and for this reason must be strictly indoor only cats. They are currently in good health and with a high quality nutritionally balanced diet and regular vet checks they can live a long and happy life.
