

Hi, my name is Jerry

Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

My name is Jerry. I was found living on the streets with a number of other homeless cats. I was covered in fleas, had a belly full of worms and I didn't really trust humans. My foster mum and her friends managed to catch me and I was taken to her home. I was pretty scared at first, I had never been inside a house. I soon realised that humans are ok. My foster mum says I am very affectionate and will make someone a very loyal companion. I do get a little nervous around new people but as soon as I trust you, we will be inseparable for life. I get along well with other cats and do like hanging out with my foster brothers and sisters.

Jerry is microchipped, desexed, worm/flead and vaccinated.
