

Hi, my name is Tokyo

Looking for love

Female Persian Cat

Tokyo is a darling, loving girl, who sadly had a very hard life, prior to arriving at Squishies. She had major issues with her reproductive system, due to over breeding and while we almost lost her, correcting the damage, we are so thrilled to report she has made full recovery and is now a happy, healthy girl. Tokyo is looking for a quiet life as an only cat, where she will be adored and spoilt, as she always should have been. Tokyo loves to be held, though she's a bit awkward until she gets comfortable! Tokyo loves being with her person so much, she will drool from contentment and would happily sit in your arms for hours! When Tokyo arrived in care, she had corneal sequestra in both eyes. I won't go into depth about the condition, you can google if you're interested, but the short version is that she had big scabs on both cornea, from her eyes not being properly cared for. This was potentially going to need specialist surgery to repair in the future, but as it wasn't at that point yet, we have just been looking after her eyes as we do with all the squishies and keeping w...
