

Hi, my name is Tigerlily ~ Staghound X Girl (On Trial 19/06/16) Looking for love

Large Female Staghound Mix Dog

Take a look at this gorgeous girl! Tigerlily is aptly named for her striking coat resembling that of a tiger! She is 8mths old and is guessed to be a staghound cross. Being that part of her breed make up would be greyhound, Tigerlily is a massive sook who loves to be your cuddle bug! Tigerlily is very responsive to training, she only needs gentle correction to get the message through if she is doing something wrong and, best of all, she is a people pleaser so she will happily do the right thing when you show her how. She is making good progress with walking on leash and is not reactive to dogs she passes. Tigerlily is completely housetrained and sleeps on her bed right through the night without disturbance. At dinnertime, she waits for her food to be placed down before eating. She comes when her name is called and responds to commands such as 'sit' 'stay' and 'come'. Tigerlily travels well in the car and loves nothing more than a run at the beach, park or lake. Tigerlily is currently being fostered with 2 other male dogs of medium and large size, which she enjoys runn...
