

Hi, my name is Dorothy (*Must Be An Only Pet)

Looking for love

Medium Female Boston Terrier Mix Dog

This adorable girl has come to us after she suffered a dog attack and was subsequently surrendered. She has sutures running along the length of her left neck and a couple of puncture wounds in the mid-section of her shoulder, which are both healing well. Toward people Dorothy is extremely submissive and wants nothing more than to please you. She currently follows her foster mother around the house like a shadow, but is slowly beginning to feel more secure within her surroundings, as well as, within herself. Due to Dorothy's past experience of having other dogs in the same household attack her, and on account of current behaviour toward other dogs at her foster home (stands over them, licks her lips, growls), Dorothy MUST be rehomed as an ONLY PET. She is not aggressive in any way to unfamiliar dogs (e.g. at the off leash area, walking past another dog in the street), in fact, she exceeds expectations at both. The issue is when there are other dogs sharing her environment or person/s of interest. Dorothy would be most appropriate for a person who has adequate time to ...
