

Hi, my name is Simba (Located In Caulfield South)

Looking for love

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Hii! My name is Simba, and just like Simba from The Lion King, I'm playful and inquisitive. I just love to explore every nook and cranny, climb to all the high spots and go places where no other kitten has gone before! My coat is super soft and fluffy so you'll just love to pet me which is great because I adore cuddles and pats, and will seek you out. But be warned, my purr is super loud! I think I love food as much as I love playing with toys or chasey with my siblings, if not more! I've grown up around my four siblings so I'm sure I will get along with any felines you already have. If you want to bring home your own little lion, I'm the perfect match for you!
