

Hi, my name is Tangles The Cuddlepot

Looking for love

Female Domestic Long Hair Cat

This sweet little girl was found by a caring family of cat lovers in Wyndham Vale, they spent a week coaxing her into their front yard with food and affection. They handed her to Metro despite falling in love with her. We named her Tangles because she hitched a ride in their car to their parents place, and survived intact! Sweet little Tangles is a spectacular looking long haired tortoiseshell girl, with the fur of a Birman both silky and fluffy. All she wants to do is love you and be loved in return. Tangles is a delight to be with, she kneads and purrs and love her pats and playing with toys and her food! Tangles didn't hiss at the foster carers dog even though she was nervous, she tried to make friends with the other cats but most of all she wanted to snuggle with the humans. The only time she hissed was when she got a fright but cuddle soon fixed that and she was back to purring and paddling with her paws. Tangles will need regular brushing and combing with her gorgeous coat. She would be happy to be an only cat if you're around a lot, or a second cat with another for her t...
