

Hi, my name is Drago

Loving, playful, happy

Large Male American Staffordshire Terrier Mix Dog

Drago is a big boofhead. He greets you with a smile and wiggling butt. He loves cuddles and to be close to you. He knows how to sit and takes food from your hand gently. Loves walks and going in the car. Sleeps like a baby, so quiet. Just a tiny bit of snoring! Is a great companion dog and quite the character. He likes to try and lay on his favourite people and goes straight to sleep when he gets into someone's lap! If he is outside he will arrange himself so he can look in a window and always wants to be near the people. He is a people dog in every sense. A total boofhead who just thinks he is human! Drago needs people and he needs to be able to spend lots of time dotting on his humans. He is loyal, loving and keen to please. He is funny, friendly and playful. If he were human he would be a cheeky Aussie larrikin, with a smile on his face and a joke to make the crowd smile!
