

Hi, my name is Pebbles The 3 Legged Staffy

Loves people

Medium Female Staffy Dog

Hello! My name is Pebbles and I am a 5 year old Staffy. A bit about me... I am a very affectionate doggy looking to find my forever home. I have so many great qualities; I am obedient, toilet trained, great with people, love kids, excellent to walk and I am full of love and energy! I love lots of cuddles, playtime and of course exercise, which for me is a very important aspect to maintain my mental health. Although I am a tripod, I am very confident in walking, running and even jumping! Along with all of my great qualities, I do suffer from separation anxiety due to a rough couple of years at the start of my life. I don't like to be left alone for long periods of time, and certainly don't enjoy thunderstorms or fireworks. I will need someone who is experienced with separation anxiety and prepared to exercise me and give me my anxiety medication daily and work with me on my independence / crate training with a positive reinforcement animal behaviourist trainer. My rescue group will help with this but it will also be an ongoing expense and training commitment till ...
