

Hi, my name is Gucci

Fun loving but gentle!

Large Female Siberian Husky Dog

Gucci is a stunning, affectionate husky with a playful and cheeky personality. Gucci would suit a home either with a friendly male doggie companion, or as an only dog where she will no doubt become the centre of your universe. Don't let Gucci fool you with her age, she's still as playful as ever and would love a long walk in the park with you, or a rousing game of fetch in the back yard. Yes you read that right! A husky that will fetch! As well as playtime, Gucci will also involve herself in cuddle time, loving to be around you and happy to snore by your side. Gucci has been an outdoor dog mostly but relishes the opportunity to be invited inside. A daily walk of 30mins or more will suit Gucci well. She has basic training down pat and would be keen to learn any tricks you'd like to teach her, as long as food is involved that is. Gucci is a no-fuss husky and would suit a first time breed owner. If left alone and without exercise for long periods of time, like most Huskies, Gucci will find a way to free herself. So it's important that her new home has secure...
