

Hi, my name is Bella

Spirited Young Dog

Large Female German Shepherd Dog

Are you looking for an active young German Shepherd dog who will take you for long walks and be your constant companion well then meet Bella who is in care at Corlette, NSW and who has just turned one year old. Bella has come into our care and is a beautiful young shepherd who has the intelligence and fun loving ways of this loyal and trusted breed. Bella needs lots of stimulation and playtime being such a young dog. No couch potato for this girl she wants to get out and enjoy life. Bella has been surrendered into our care as she needs a home where she receives daily walks, playtime and stimulation. This little girl is smart, affectionate and very people focused and had a very strong will. So an experienced shepherd owner who knows the ropes and his to control a very determined and alpha shepherd. Bella is fully house trained and voice responsive. She has manners but they need refining and she has learnt to walk on a lead but this also needs further work. She is a young dog so expect her to still get excited, jump up for kisses and so going to a home with very young...
